Oct 1st – MICHAEL THORNE

Audiences love Michael Thorne's energetic style, his insightful jokes and his cartoon-like vocal delivery. His career spans over 20 years and his show is packed with non-stop, rapid-fire comedy. If you could hook Michael up to a power grid, you'd run Xcel Energy right out of business. He is an amalgam of culture and white trash raised in Northeast Minneapolis. Audiences love his hilarious observational insights on evolution (or lack thereof), human relations, marriage, and parenthood.
